

Adding Alliteration to Poetry

Below are two poems that are missing some words. Write words in the blank that will create an alliteration.

Sunrise

As the _____ sun rises

In the _____ purple sky,

The _____ lark sings a _____ song.

A _____ day has begun.

Creepy Castle

In a _____ and _____ dungeon

_____ ghosts float _____.

_____ spiders scurry silently

As the _____ moon shines down.

Adding Alliteration to Poetry

Below are two poems that are missing some words. Write words in the blank that will create an alliteration.

Sunrise

Actual student's answers will vary. Examples of correct answers:

As the shimmering sun rises

In the pale purple sky,

The little lark sings a solitary song.

A delightful day has begun.

□

Creepy Castle

In a dark and dreary dungeon

Gruesome ghosts float freely.

Scary spiders scurry silently

As the midnight moon shines down.